REFLECTION:

Giving

You give but little when you give of your possessions.
It is when you give of yourself that you truly give.
There are those who give little of the much which they have, and they give it for recognition, and their hidden desire makes their gifts unwholesome. And there are those who have little and give it all. These are the believers in life and the bounty of life, and their coffer is never empty. Through the hands of such as these God speaks, and from behind their eyes he smiles upon the earth. Kahlil Gibran

THE NOVEMBER TALK OF THE OLD

KILFARBOY SOCIETY will take place on Tuesday, 12th November, in the Malbay, Miltown Malbay at 8pm. Michael Houlihan will talk about Samhain/Halloween. The festival is a mix of Celtic and Christian practices, both of which honoured the dead. Mythology and superstitions have many associated traditions that take place indoors and outdoors on Halloween night. Samhain is one of the quarter days of the Celtic year which is a fire festival and outdoor fires continue to be lit on Samhain night. The festival is associated with the Cailleach, the older feminine energy which is the personification of this time of year. Michael will discuss the origins and traditions of the festival with reference to customs in Co Clare. Michael worked as an OPW guide for six years on Inis Cathaigh/Scattery Island. He has published six local history books and surveyed Clare's Holy Wells under the auspices of Clare County Council. The results of the survey are accessible at <https://heritage.clareheritage.org/category/places/holy-wells>. He is currently working on a survey of Clare's 140 children's burial grounds, also called kyles or Cilleens. All are welcome.
