REFLECTION: Our Deepest Fear

Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate.
Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness, that most frightens us. We ask ourselves, who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented and fabulous?
Actually, who are you not to be?
You are a child of God.

Your playing small doesn't serve the world.
There's nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you.
We are all meant to shine, as children do.
We are born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us. It's not just in some of us, it's in everyone.

And as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others.

2025 IS JUBILEE YEAR and also the 350th Anniversary of the devotion to the Sacred Heart. Maybe spending an hour with Jesus once a week would be a special way to celebrate these anniversaries. Should you not be in a position to commit to one hour a week you might like to join the "Super Subs" where you would fill in when someone is out sick. Jesus will always have a great welcome for you even if you can only spend 5 minutes with him, every Tuesday from 10 a.m. – 9 p.m. upstairs in the band room. If you think you could help please text Ann at 086 1708321.
