REFLECTION:

The quality of mercy is not strained;
It droppeth as the gently rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath. It is twice blest;
It blesseth him that gives and him that takes:
'tis mightiest in the mighty; it becomes
The throned monarch better than his crown:
It is enshrined in the hearts of kings,
It is an attribute to God himself;
And earthly power doth then show likest God's
When mercy seasons justice.
Therefore, though justice be thy plea, consider this,
That in the course of justice none of us Should see salvation. We do pray for mercy, and that same prayer doth teach us all to render
The deeds of mercy.

SERENITY PRAYER

Lord, grant me the serenity to accept things that I cannot change, the courage to change the things that I can and the wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time; Enjoying one moment at a time; Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace. Taking, as Christ did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it, Trusting that he will make all things right, If I surrender to his will; so that I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with him forever in the next. Amen
